Everybody Swears Everybody Is Innocent—Husting Calls Proceedings Whitewash

MADISON, Wis., April 8.—The assembly members of the senatorial investigating committee Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday night attempted a "whitewash" of the charges of corruption and bribery in connection with the election of Isaac Stephenson to the United States senate by the legislature.

Though under the resolution authorizing the investigation which is now being conducted they had no power to inquire into the election by the legislature, they called to the witness stand six assemblymen who were supposed to have knowledge of extraordinary influence that was attempted to be used in Mr. Stephenson's behalf.

The assemblymen were the three democrats who stayed out of the joint convention on March 4, the day that Stephenson was elected, Thomas F. Ramsey, John T. Farrell and Silas Towne; and Assemblyman Peter F. Leuch, who says he has personal knowledge of something improper; Fred R. Zimmerman, who was told by a member of the assembly of an offer of money to stay out of the joint convention, and Joseph Domachowski, who had told fellow members that he was offered $1,500 to stay out of the convention.

Husting Protests.
Senator Husting protested against the proposed whitewash, contending that the committee had no power to go into this subject, a fact which was admitted by the assembly members.
But Assemblyman Hambrecht declared eloquently that he did not propose to haggle over a technicality, and that as the witnesses were here he was willing to hear their testimony, although the assembly members had previously blocked an attempt to call these men.

Only four members of the committee were present, and as three of them were assemblymen, Mr. Husting was outvoted and the "whitewash" proceeded. But not until Senator Husting had raised the point of no quorum and had been overruled by Chairman Bray, who is acting chairman in the absence of Senator S. M.
Marsh.

The three democrats who stayed out of the joint convention on March 4, Towne, Ramsey and Farrell, were the first to testify. Joseph Domachowski testified late last night.

Assemblymen Zimmerman and Leuch refused to testify on the ground that the present investigating committee had no power to take testimony regarding the election by the legislature.

Told Wayland He Is Hard Up.

Assemblyman Towne testified that he told C. C. Wayland on the day of Stephenson's election that if he stayed out of the joint convention he might suffer some financial embarassment growing out of the fact that the mortgage on his farm was held by men who did not want Stephenson elected. He said that in answer to this Wayland told him that it was easy to arrange loans and to get money at a low rate of interest. Later he qualified this statement by saying that it might not have been Wayland who told him this.

Mr. Domachowski said that he had told the story about being offered $1,500 as a joke, and that he had joked in a saloon with a traveling salesman named Joe O'Neil about the same thing, but that the whole thing was a joke.

Assemblymen Ramsey and Farrell both testified that they had been offered no inducement of any kind to stay out of the joint convention on March 4. Mr. Ramsey said that he was paired with Assemblyman Fenelon, who was at home sick. He

THE GOVERNOR IS PRETTY BUSY TODAY

BUT HE'LL HAVE TO STOP WORK AND TESTIFY

IS NOT SO VERY ANXIOUS

DECLINES TO MAKE VOLUNTARY APPEARANCE

SUBPOENA TO DO BUSINESS

Executive Will Have to Stop "Taking Invoice"—Stone Meeting Shows Up

MADISON, Wis., April 8.—(Special.)—Governor Davidson is going to hurry up taking an invoice that well nigh prevented him from taking the stand in the primary investigation, and tell what he knows about that $1,200 Warden Stone gave him away last year for purposes the nature of which the governor has had no opportunity to ferret out. So pressed for time was the governor that it required a subpoena to assure his coming from Soldiers' Grove, where he has been sojourning ever since Stone "coughed up" to the committee several days ago.

Had Offered to Testify.
Shortly after the good news spread that Governor Davidson had received money from Stone with the warning,
"Ask me no questions and I'll tell you no lies," the executive declared in a newspaper interview that he was ready to mount the stand and tell how he had been trying to catch that Stone since last September and make him tell how he dared give him (the governor) money. Of course the governor did not put it just that way, but no one could put things just as the governor does.

But Is "Too Busy."
But today when Governor Davidson was called up on long distance from Soldiers' Grove and told the committee wanted to know if he would appear voluntarily and testify about the Stone cash, he said he was "pre-tily busy." To further urging he replied that he was "very" busy, taking an invoice of a stock of goods.
He said he could not possibly appear "before Monday."

Then it was explained to him (even Puellier or Gordon would not have forgotten it) that the committee closed its sessions Saturday and garnished today by Carl O. Morgan, day after Saturday.

Order Subpoena Issued.
The governor was sorry, but was still "pretty busy," so the committee decided to have him subpoenaed, and the subpoena was issued today and the governor will appear tomorrow, even though the invoice has to be delayed.

About that Stone Game.
S. B. Richtman, a deputy game warden, took the stand and told about the private meeting at the home of State Warden Stone in which he agreed to assume to have received $100 of the Stephenson money. He also told of Johnson and Kingsley each having agreed to "stand for" $200. The evidence of Richtman shows a plain frame-up known to the law as subornation of perjury.

Others Testify.
State Fire Marshal Purcell and several other deputy game wardens testified before the committee regarding their activity in the senatorial campaign last fall.

BLANCHE WALL TO WED LOUIS RINDE

Miss Blanche Wall, aged 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C.
Wall, 1432 Charles street, this city, is to marry Mr. Louis Rinde, aged 34, of Stoughton, Wis. The couple secured a license to wed yesterday at Rockford, Ill., and were married at once as is customary with visiting couples at this Gretna Green. They will live at Stoughton, according to the mother of the young lady.

MERCHANTS DON'T LIKE TAX.

The La Crosse Merchants' Protective association will meet tonight at Linker hall. Among the matters which may be discussed is the tariff on stockings and women's gloves. It is likely that a resolution will be passed disapproving of this clause in the new tariff bill.

!GLAD OF HALF A LOAF

MAGNITUDE DON'T MEAN A MONOPOLY

SUCH IS CLAIM OF STANDARD OIL CHIEF COUNSEL

ALL COMMERCE ILLEGAL THEN

Say Smallest Merchant Who Sought a Profit Would Be Lawbreaker
—Many Pockets Unnecessary

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 8.—Miss Ida Tarbell, the magazine writer who created a sensation by her articles against John D. Rockefeller and to whom Attorney John G. Milburn directed his denunciation, is expected to come in for a further verbal drubbing this morning when the Standard's lawyer resumes his argument for the defense in the suit to dissolve the concerns of the oil company's counsel, is responsible for much of the "unjust, unfair and destructive criticism that has been aimed at the country's greatest industry."

Incidentally, editors, political economists and reformers who attack American institutions because of the growth of such corporations, will be excooriated.

Trusts' Safety Paramount.
Before court opened, the Standard's lawyers expressed the belief that no graver menace to the future prosperity of the nation exists than the continued efforts of writers to create prejudice against industrial corporations as plundering trusts.
Such men are playing into the hands of those who would bring about an upheaval of society, the lawyers believe.

Business Legitimate.
Rosenthal's argument will be one of mixed facts and law. He will outline facts which, in his view, justify everything done by the Standard and then apply his construction of the law. He will claim the oil combination is a legitimate enterprise. If the Standard is a criminal conspiracy against the interests of the public he will insist that every commercial enterprise be put in the same category.

He will ask the court whether the same methods do not apply in all business: those of buying as cheaply as possible, selling at a profit and accumulating capital.

A Legal Proposition.
Mr. Rosenthal and his associates have evolved this legal proposition:
"Although a corporation grows so extensively as to control a business in its entirety, its magnitude does not make it a monopoly."

The lawyers will point out that trade is not restrained in an enterprise that has been developed from a system of 3,000 miles of pipe lines and $1,000,000 investment in refineries to 54,000 miles of pipe lines and $130,000,000 in refineries.

In their final arguments the Standard's attorneys will insist that if the oil trust is illegal then every merchant who buys goods as cheaply as he can and holds them until the consumer is forced to pay him a profit is acting illegally.

Two points that are brought prominently before the court as the main reasons for the dismissal of the petition are:

The merger of the Standard companies was prior to the passage of the Sherman law; and The consolidation of the owner-

COURT MAY DIRECT GIRL'S ACQUITTAL

MRS. SAMPSON SEEMS TO BE SURE OF FREEDOM

STATE'S CASE FALLS FLAT

Indications Are That Evidence Will Not Warrant Case Going to the Jury

LYONS, N. Y., April 8.—With Carl Allyn, brother of the accused, on the stand, the trial of Mrs.
Georgia Sampson, for the murder of her husband, Harry Sampson, was resumed today with the impression general everywhere that when the state rests, a motion for a dismissal of the indictment will be granted by Justice Rich.

The state still has its gunshot expert, Dr. Hamilton of Auburn, to call, but inasmuch as it developed that the shirt which the state has presented as the one worn by the dead man when he was killed was not the one he wore that morning, it is not considered likely his testimony will be of much material benefit to the prosecution.

Public Woman's Friend.
Public sympathy is now all on the side of the accused woman, and today the townspeople are falling over each other to assure her that they "never did believe any of the stories about her."

But she retains her impassive attitude and walked into the court house today as serene and confident as on the day she heard the indictment read.

Carl Allyn's testimony was unimportant and he was followed by Mrs.
M. Leiberts, whose husband yesterday swore he found a yardstick, which the defense claims was used by Sampson to explode the rifle, on the floor of the dining room after the tragedy. She swore that she did not see Georgia Sampson on the lower floor of the house at any time following the death of her husband until late that evening.

No New Light

Mrs. Gertrude Sampson, sister of the dead man, her brother, and mother, Mrs. Harriet Sampson, followed each other on the stand, but threw absolutely no light on the tragedy.
Earl C. Serviss, uncle of Mildred Serviss, swore that his niece was 14 years old despite the fact that she appeared a young woman. He knew that Robert Manson had met his niece and also that both were friendly with Georgia Sampson. His testimony was immaterial.

Another Missing Link

Undertaker Steiger was recalled to identify the shirts shown in court as the ones he took from the body of Harry Sampson, but stated that he could not do so.

Coroner Jennings was recalled to identify the shirts, gun and cartridges concerned in the tragedy, which he did. District Attorney Gilbert then took the stand and immediately proceeded to identify the shirts in court as those he received from the coroner.

Gilbert identified the gun, the bullet taken from Sampson's body and gave other routine testimony.
A recess was then taken.

CASTRO IS DRIVEN FROM MARTINIQUE

FRENCH GOVERNMENT ORDERS HIS EXPULSION

COULD CAUSE A SENSATION

President Gomez of Venezuela Fears His Power and Says Return Will Mean Death or Imprisonment

PARIS, April 8.—Cipriano Castro, one time president of Venezuela, now a sojourner on the island of Martinique, will today receive official notice to leave at once and not to land again on French territory. Today the official report of the governor of Martinique that he was staying there was received.

The foreign office at once prepared the decree of expulsion and it has been cabled to Martinique. There is much speculation as to where Castro will now take refuge.

The report that he has a steamer under charter at an American port has been revived and it was reported that he would take passage on it to some point where he could get in to communication with his sympathizers who still remain in Venezuela. That he will eventually be able to start a revolution in his native country is generally believed here.

CARACAS, April 7.—While President Gomez still declares that former President Castro would be inviting imprisonment or death in returning to Venezuela, friends of the president admitted today that Gomez is doing everything possible to prevent the return of Castro. Administrative circles fear that unless Castro is summarily disposed of in the event of his return he will be able to create the gravest disorders. The story that he is coming back merely to look after his business interests is not credited. He still has many friends who would be only too glad to lend their aid to any Castro movement in order to be revenged upon the administration for indignities suffered at the time of Castro's overthrow.

The charge of being in a conspiracy to murder President Gomez still stands against Castro and the president has ordered his arrest the moment he lands.

ROBBERS LOOT BIG GAMBLING JOINT

OGDEN, Utah, April 8.—Five unmasked men early today held up the patrons of the White Elephant gambling house and escaped with $2,500 without firing a shot. There were 35 men in the room when the bandits entered. Four robbers drew two revolvers each and compelled the patrons to hold their hands up while the fifth men in the room were scooped into a sack all the money on the tables. Then the robbers backed out and fled on horses.

"BOB" REPORTS CENSUS.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Senator La Follette today reported the census bill from his committee and announced he would call it up for consideration tomorrow.

MODJESKA'S DEATH FOLLOWS THE LONG ILLNESS OF ACTRESS

CELEBRATED WOMAN PASSES

SHE HAD A GREAT CAREER

Married Count Chalapowski But Stuck to Stage—Played With Booth Years Ago

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 8.— Mme. Helena Modjeska, the world famous tragedienne, died at her Newport Beach home at 10 o'clock this morning. Her husband, Count Chas.
Bozenta Chaplowski, and her son, Ralph Modjeska, of Chicago, were at her bedside when she died.

Mme. Modjeska's death has been expected momentarily for several days. Last Friday she lapsed into a state of coma and never roused from it.

Madam Modjeska since 1876 has been playing almost continuously before American and English audiences.

Madame Modjeska was 65 years old, of Polish birth and descent. She made her debut on the stage at Poch-nia, Poland, in a comedy entitled "The White Camelia," when not 17 years of age. It was in 1876 when she made her first American appearance at San Francisco in "Adrienne Lecouver," and her London debut four years later in "Camille," under the title of "Heartase." The most important part of her artistic career was in Europe, but in regard to her success in this country Madame Mod-jeska says:

"I consider my greatest boon to have been associated with Mr. Edwin Booth in 1889-90."

Her repertoire in this country has consisted of Shakespearean plays, of which she has played 14, together with "Mary Stuart of Schiller," "Camille," and "Adrienne Lecouvreur."

Madame Modjeska belonged to several Catholic charity societies and to a number of women's organizations.
She was a patron of the International Women's congress and an adopted daughter of the Golden West. In private life she was the wife of Count Pozenta Chalapowski, whom she married in 1868.

TAKE LIVELY BARN ON $75,000 MORTGAGE

Hodge and Bradbury who hold mortgages on the properties of the firm of Hollenbeck and Morgan, 118 North Sixth street, will sell the entire equipment of the Hollenbeck and Morgan barn at public sale April 13th at 10 o'clock, to satisfy their unpaid claim.

Bills due Hollenbeck and Morgan by patrons of the firm are being garnished today by Carl O. Morgan, an employee of the firm of Hollenbeck and Morgan, to satisfy claims for wages due him.

Mr. Bradbury when seen this afternoon said that the amount of their claim would aggregate $75,000. No payments had been made in the last four months, so the mortgages took possession of the property yesterday on their chattel mortgage.

Hollenbeck and Morgan have operated the barn since May 1, last year. They claim that the hard times of the past winter ruined their business.

MESMER VERY ILL

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 8.— Archbishop Sebastian G. Mesmer of the Catholic diocese of Milwaukee is seriously ill in a local hospital. He is suffering from jaundice. The prelate has been ill for several weeks but no alarm is felt over his condition.

1000 HOMELESS IN MANCHESTER FIRE SWEEP BY A GALE

STRIP A MILE LONG BURNED IN CITY'S CENTER

THE MILITIA IS CALLED OUT

Flames Under Control at 2:30 Rfter All Day Struggle With Conflagration

MANCHESTER, N. H., April 8.— With practically the whole southern part of this city in flames, there is danger that the greater part of that section will be destroyed before night by a great fire which is leaping from block to block.

For a region of ten blocks in length and three or four wide, the flames already are sweeping away houses and, driven by a fierce gale, are utterly beyond control of the fire companies from Nashua, Lowell and Concord, who are here to aid the local fire fighters.

In all the streets household furnishings are piled high. The militia may be called on to prevent robberies. No estimate of the loss has yet been made.

At 2:30 the fire was under control after having swept clean the section three blocks wide and nearly a mile long in the southern end of the city, making two thousand people homeless. Though an estimate is nearly impossible, it is believed the damage will be in the neighborhood of $500,000.

Early in the day the militia was called out and are now picketing through the streets guarding the efforts of the hundreds made homeless by the flames. It is expected the town is safe now if the gale, which has about abated, does not resume its strength.

MODEST, HE CLOAKS THE BATHING GIRLS

ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—
Senator Alvah W. Burlingame and Assemblyman Chas. P. Murphy have taken a hand along with the Parisian dressmakers in dictating what American women shall wear, by introducing a bill which requires that all bathing resorts in the state women bathers shall wear a long cloak over their bathing suit while enroute from the hotel to the bathing beach. It will be a misdemeanor should the bill pass, to appear otherwise clad.

THIEVERY NEARLY COSTS OWN LIFE

MADISON, Wis., April 8.—(Special.)—After stealing the oars from a boat belonging to two fish commission employees who were watching a spawning net in Lake Mendota yesterday, an unknown poacher became entangled in the net and nearly drowned. After being in the water twenty minutes trying to hang onto the ice floe, his cries for help reached the watchmen's ears and they rushed to their boat to go after him.
Finding their oars gone the watchmen finally rigged a paddle and pulled him from the water just in time.
The poacher's life was saved after a half hour's heroic work with the assistance of a physician from Mendota asylum nearby. Having no actual evidence of the man trying to steal fish the men let him go.

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgement.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your neighbors. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R.V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Try It on The Hills

Test this car at half speed on a hill or sand road where power and every ounce of it is needed. Notice how steadily and powerfully it pulls when running slowly under load. The capacity of the Rambler engine for doing this extra work is most noticeable at low engine speeds. This is because of the offset crank shaft.

Rambler
The Car with the Offset Crank Shaft

All that power which in other engines is lost through friction on the bearings and cylinder walls, is added to the driving force by the Rambler offset crank shaft. It reduces friction, eliminates hammer on bearings, gives more power. The straight-line drive delivers the power direct and with least frictional loss to the rear axle. Let us demonstrate these features and the silence and comfort of this car. Let us call at your home, and take you to your place of business some morning in a Rambler.

HIKERS OF WINONA GAIN REPUTATION

The Winona Y. M. C. A. "hikers," who have been gaining quite a reputation as pedestrians in the last few days, reached La Crosse yesterday morning from Bangor. The two young men, William Foster and Lester Gage, made the trip of 53 miles from Winona to Bangor in one day. When they reached La Crosse they were in fine condition and left here yesterday afternoon on their return trip.

Another division of the same pedestrian club left Winona for Lake City and other Minnesota points.

BAD SEASON FOR COLDS

Colds and grip were quite prevalent last winter and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in great demand and performed some remarkable cures. Mrs. Mary J. Robinson of Cameron, W. Va., says: "Last winter I was taken with one of the awfullest colds I ever had in my life. I could not speak above a whisper and was very hoarse. I was afraid it was going to be pneumonia. I took one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in three days was lots better and could talk. I did not take the one bottle. I did it cured me. I now tell everybody about Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the good it did me."

HOLDING OUT WILL COST KLING $1,000

MURPHY SAYS THAT IS SUM HE HAS TO PAY TO RETURN

CHANCE IS NOT WORRIED

Says Kling Won't Wreck the Club if He Does Not Return at All and He Don't Care, Either

CHICAGO, April 8.—John Kling can not return to the Chicago ball club unless he pays a fine of $1,000. This is the positive statement of President Murphy of the Cubs.

"You may say to Mr. Kling that he needn't buy his ticket to Chicago unless he is prepared to pay $1,000 as reimbursement to the club for the money it cost us to get Catcher Needham from St. Paul.

"I know he is a prima donna catcher, but he can't run the Chicago Baseball club. If he wished to become a contract jumper and contract breaker and then thought better of it is up to him to make good the losses he caused us in trying to fill his place.

"I'll trade Kling just as quickly as anybody else if I can get value received. He looks just like John Brown or John Smith to me. We can win the pennant without him and men who have no regard for their word, written or spoken, must be taught a lesson. If New York can get along without Bresnahan we can get along without Kling."

Chance Not Worried.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 8.—"Let Kling do the worrying. His absence won't wreck the club and I am sincere when I say I don't care what he does."

This is what Chance, manager of the Cubs, declared when asked regarding Kling today.

WORDS TO FREEZE THE SOUL

"Your son has Consumption. His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Geo. E. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks use," writes Mr. Blevens, "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy." Infallible for Coughs and Colds, it's the safest, surest cure of desperate Lung diseases on earth. 50c and $1.00. O. T. Erhart guarantees satisfaction. Trial bottle free.

REGIMENT OF TROOPS FOR AUTO RACE

CHICAGO, April 8.—A regiment of Illinois troops will invade Indiana in June and will occupy that state for two days. The occasion will be the annual races of the Chicago Automobile club which will be held between Crown Point and Lowell, Ind., and it will be the first time outside of Georgia that troops have policed an automobile course.

The invasion was made possible by the action of Gov. Marshall of Indiana, in granting permission for the First Regiment, I. N. G., to enter his state. The Chicago Automobile club had to obtain this permission before the American Automobile association would sanction the meet. One thousand soldiers will be taken across the line.

WRESTLERS WILL SELECT REFEREE

HAVE A GOOD LIST TO PICK ARBITER FROM

BOTH MEN IN FINE SHAPE

Gotch is Alarmed Over Reports from the Turk's Camp and is Working Hard for Match

CHICAGO, April 8.—Frank Gotch and Yussif Mahmoud will meet today and choose a referee for their battle for the world's wrestling championship, which will be held here April 14.

Both men have presented a list of referees acceptable to them. This list contains the names of Bat Masterson of New York, Joe Ulman of Baltimore, Eddie McBride of Buffalo, Walter Kelley of Cleveland, Otto Florio of Denver and Dick Fleming, Malachy Hogan and Ed Smith of this city. According to the articles of agreement between Gotch and Mahmoud the Empire Athletic club reserves the right to name its own arbiter, Dick Fleming, if not choice is made by Saturday afternoon.

Satisfied at last that his championship title is really in danger, Gotch is working with desperate energy to fit himself well for his meeting with the Turk.

The Iowa wrestler has been told so often that the man from the Balkan mountains is quite likely to beat him unless he is at his best that now he is a bit alarmed and his training shows it.

Gotch believes in roadwork, and takes lots of it. Every morning at 9 o'clock he starts out for his jaunt and never covers less than eight miles at a stretch, running and walking, with the useful sprint of 100 yards or so thrown in at the start and finish. Strength and endurance along with good wind are attained from this work.

The afternoons are devoted to gymnasium work, and the grueling on the mat with his training partners. These sessions at the Illinois Athletic club are fierce affairs for Gotch does not spare his men. Farmer Burns has charge of that section of the work.

The Turk is working just as hard, with his headquarters at the Chicago Athletic association. His roadwork is even more trying than Gotch's, the foreigner being also a strong believer in the value of exercise in the open air. Yussif is gaining followers daily, and it is doubtful if Gotch will be such a strong favorite when the men enter the ring.

Gotch and the Turk are training faithfully. Mahmoud weighs 197 pounds and Gotch tips the scale at 200.

RACING MEN WILL DISREGARD NEW LAW

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 8.—Though the Walker-Otis law goes into effect April 19, two days after the racing season closes in California, the stockholders of the Santa Anita Racing association and racing men in general declare there will be racing at Santa Anita regardless of the new law. Testing of the new law will be left entirely to Thomas H. Williams, president of the California Jockey club. George Rose, who recently acquired all the holdings of the late "Lucky" Baldwin in the Santa Anita track, declared that the law was unconstitutional and the court will define it so.

BARBEAU IS NOW A PIRATE REGULAR

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 8.—Advice from Hot Springs today indicate that Manager Clarke of the Pirates has solved the riddle of middle field and that Tommy Leach will be anchored in that garden. Barbeau has shown such fine form on third in the practice games that it is almost certain he will be kept there, thus permitting Leach to achieve his heart's desire to play in the outfield.

MIKE DONLIN GIVES OUT FUTURE PLANS

CHICAGO, April 8.—That the ball fans will not see Mike Donlin, the star outfielder of the New York Giants, at his old post this season became known as a fact today when Mike himself declared that it was all off between himself and the Giants and that he and his wife, Mabel, would spend the summer touring the continent.

Mike and wife arrived here yesterday on their way to Milwaukee, where they begin their first vaudeville circuit which ends at San Francisco.

Mike is in poor health and expects to go abroad this summer.

STILL DICKERING WITH BIG FELLOWS

McINTOSH WILL TRY TO GET DECISION TODAY

GIVES TOMMY BURNS BOOST

Is Anxious to Match Him With Ketchel or Big Al Kaufman and Will Place a Big Bet on Burns

NEW YORK, April 8.—Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, who pulled off the Burns-Johnson championship go, will make another effort to sign up Jim Jeffries and the big black champion. He will see the big fellows late today and try to have Jeffries say if he has any intention of again donning the mitts.

"I want to see whether Jeffries will fight or not," said the Australian. Incidentally McIntosh put in a little boost for Tommy Burns. He said that he had posted $5,000 for Burns to meet Johnston, Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion, or Al Kaufman and he felt confident that the Canadian could defeat any of them.

McIntosh said that Burns was a bit too anxious in the last meeting with Johnson, that he was overtrained before the fight and that accounted for his poor showing.

"Johnson just kidded Tommy to death," said McIntosh.

Burns and Ketchel or Burns and Kaufman would make a grand card, according to McIntosh and he said he would bet on Burns to turn the trick. In the meantime, local fight promoters are not hustling to sign any of the big guns in the fight game. The shock given the sport by Gov. Hughes' crusade against boxing is causing much concern and all believe in "laying low" until a definite understanding is reached as to whether the law has been evaded, according to the opinion of the authorities.

MEET FOR FINAL IN TENNIS TOURNAY

BOSTON, April 8.—Joshua Crane, of Boston who earned his way into the finale in the court tennis championship tourney by taking 3 straight sets from Foxhall P. Keene, of New York, will meet Dr. G. S. Derby, of this city, in the final match today. The winner will meet Jay Gould of New York next Saturday for the national championship.

BUGS RAYMOND IS GETTING RECKLESS

NEW YORK, April 8.—Bugs Raymond has wagered $50 that he will win a greater percentage of games next season than Christy Mathewson. He has made the bet with Matty himself. Last season Mathewson won 37 and lost 11 games. Raymond won 15 and lost 25.

TURTLE PETRIFIES IN HORSE'S STOMACH

WATERBURY, Conn., April 8.—From the stomach of Dinah Temple, a racing mare, which had to be operated on for indigestion, was taken a perfectly petrified water turtle, four inches long and as solid as a rock. The theory is that the turtle was swallowed while the horse was drinking and not being expelled from the stomach in time became petrified. All of the green and yellow colorings of the turtle have been greatly intensified by the petrification.

BASEBALL MEN TO ARBITRATE SOON

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., April 8.—W. H. Sexton today received notice of a joint meeting on Monday at Philadelphia of the national association board of arbitration and the national commission, at which the fight against the "outlaws" on the Pacific coast and the alleged irregularities of Jimmy Callahan since his recent reinstatement will be considered. Callahan is said to be playing men belonging to other clubs, one being Pitcher Torrey, claimed to be the property of the Springfield club of the Three-I league.

WOLGAST MATCHED WITH GEO. MEMSIC

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 8.—Ad Wolgast, who whipped Picato a few weeks ago, will be seen in the ring again on April 16, when he will fight Geo. Memsic. The weight is to be 133 pounds at 6 o'clock. This will give Memsic the advantage of about ten pounds, as he takes on weight rapidly.

A FOOLISH ASSERTION.

The political folly that is perhaps the most distinguishing characteristic of public utility companies, has displayed itself in the announcement in the local organs of the light company that, "La Crosse split on lighting plant spells its defeat." This and more like it, with the assertion that a majority of 548 is insufficient to carry the point because the majority came largely from the southern wards of the city and owns relatively less property than the aggregate minority, an assumption far from conclusively justified.

Ergo, why not say, Ori Sorensen was not elected mayor? For, you see—

Ori got a majority of 384, securing it from the southern wards.

Municipal lighting got a majority of 548, securing it from the southern wards.

If the light plant is defeated with a majority of 548, then Mr. Sorensen is defeated with a majority of 384, isn't he?

One cannot conclude that the president of the light company is so foolish as to have inspired any such act as this, but he ought to appeal to these organs of monopoly and political reaction to take their hands off his property. If the common council defeats the municipal plant after it has been voted by the people, they must have for justification absolute proof that the plant will not pay, that to build it would be a mistake. If, as Mr. Cloos says, the city can save approximately $100,000 in ten years by building a plant, or half that sum, it should be built. If the plant would mean a loss, or a gain insufficient to justify the investment, perhaps it should not be built. However, the passage of the plan by referendum makes it incumbent upon the council to give the benefit of the doubt to the plant; it must be built unless it is plain as day that to build it would be disastrous to the city's interests.

This matter was put up to the voters without pressure. There was no champion of municipal lighting to urge them in its favor. The best figures obtainable were published, and from their own deductions the voters took their position on the matter. On the face of these figures we believe the voters took the logical course, for the claims of Mr. Cloos were not conclusively contradicted by the company's experts. The important question remaining to be solved is this:

WERE MR. CLOOS' FIGURES AND CLAIMS CORRECT?

The Tribune does not pretend to know. It is a question for experts. The city council will have to be guided by expert opinion. This expert opinion must be secured from disinterested sources. It must be expert opinion other than that of the company or individuals whom the company can control or influence directly or indirectly.

WRITE, WRITE NOW!

Out of your wages, what do you buy that makes "life worth living," as the social economists express it? You pay for rent, car fare, fuel and light, furniture, insurance, food, clothing, health, taxes, and for other miscellaneous necessities. They are all very important, but do they make "life worth living?" They keep your body alive, but do they satisfy your mind or fill your heart in a different way the ape in the jungle obtains these or similar life necessities without much of a struggle.

Out of your wages what do you buy that does make life worth living? Recreation, amusement and education. Money will buy these three things also, and they, with spiritual advancement, are the things which make your life higher than that of the chattering African beast.

There is some talk in Washington at the present time concerning the cost of living. It should interest more people than seem to be interested. The old, hard word "tariff" happens to be involved, and consequently many of us are passing the discussion by unconcernedly and just as if it didn't mean anything to us. If congressmen would substitute the word "tax" for "tariff" we should all listen more attentively. We know what taxes are. Our fathers did some fighting against unjust taxes in the past. But we, it seems, don't know how to fight against an unjust tariff, which, if we were not such simple people, we would recognize as merely another name for taxes.

It is plain that the more money we pay from our incomes for necessities the less we shall have to buy recreation, amusement and education, the things that make life worth living. Therefore it is up to us to keep the prices of necessities low. Food, clothing, roofs, etc., we must buy first. The better, higher things we buy with our surplus cash. There is no recreation that recreates if the hunger gnaws the stomach; there is

SPOTLIGHTS

Al H. Wilson
Golden voiced singer A. H. Wilson, the ambassador of German dialect, will be the attraction at the La Crosse theater tonight. This is an event that can well be looked forward to with anticipation by those who love the best that there is in pleasing and modern theatricals. The loving "Metz" is possessed of a voice such as few men have ever been endowed with. When he sings it is with a plaintive feeling and a touch of romantic tenderness, while the sweet notes seem to vibrate even through his speaking parts. As the central figure in his latest play, "When Old New York Was Dutch," staged with all the attention to detail for which his manager, Sidney R. Ellis, is noted, he is constantly adding to the host of friends and patrons whose attendance upon such attractions in which he appears have already put the stamp of approval upon his successful starring efforts. An able company, magnificent scenery and correct costuming add immensely to the ensemble, and as a finished production this latest "Wilson play" is said to have few equals among the season's offerings.

Sunday's Attraction
"The Runaways" is another brilliant example of the type of entertainment that has been made famous by New York Casino; but none of the other celebrated musical plays that have hailed from this rollicking temple of fun and song, has ever achieved a success in any way to be compared with that of "The Runaways." It has been different. Most Casino successes hold their sway over the public fancy for a year or two, and then slip gracefully into forgetfulness. Its first Casino engagement lasted for seven long months. Its hold upon New York playgoers was so firm, however, that since then it has been sent back to Broadway again and again, and while other and newer musical comedies were rising and falling, "The Runaways" has held its popularity undiminished. Its success outside of New York has been equally astonishing. It is now in its sixth season en tour, and its audiences everywhere are bigger and more enthusiastic than ever.

Sale of seats commences Saturday morning.

no amusement which amuses if the seat is out of a fellow's pants, and there is no education which educates if the mind is depressed by the knowledge that the sheriff has posted a dispossession notice on the door.

We do not need to be told that the cost of living has increased tremendously in the past ten years. We pay more for food and lodging than we ever had to pay before. If your salary has not increased (and it hasn't, by half, on the average, in proportion to your expenses) you have less to spend now for mind and heart than ever before. Big business, in the interest of the selfish few, and corrupt politics, in the interest of big business, have made prices high. And right now, this very day, in Washington, politics and big business are framing up an added tax for you to pay.

Is Washington you may hear your servants eloquently defending your enemies, the trusts. The gentleman from Pennsylvania wants protection for John D. oil; the gentleman from Illinois is begging for the leather trust; the gentleman from the northwest pleads for the lumber trust; the gentleman from California says, "Save us from cheap lemons." And they get off a lot of humbug about the poor workingman's job and shoot the old familiar hot air about infant industries. They are not defending you, the consumer, against still further increased cost of living. Not one of them has told the truth about your condition. They have submitted tons of words about the misery of the trusts, but not one congressman or senator has as yet put on the record the fact that the average New York city family, on an income of $846 per year, has just $14 to spend for recreation, amusement and education—just 1,400 cents between that family and the level of the animals Roosevelt will soon be chasing. Very little is being said about your grocery bills, your clothing bills, your rent bills. Not one of your "servants" thinks it worth while to mention that your boy can not have books, your wife recreation, or your contentment if your income is entirely consumed by the demands of your bodies.

Get busy, fellow citizens! Jump into the fight! There is still some time before the Payne bill will come to a vote. Take a stand against your enemies! We know that you are tired at night and perhaps discouraged. But you may have worse nights than this one if present conditions continue. Protest against any increase in the price of necessities. Write to President Taft and to your congressman and your senator. Tell them that you will punish the party and the man who adds taxes to such as shoes, stockings, underwear, ready-made clothing, hats, knit goods, oil, tea, coffee, pepper, gloves, blankets, dress goods, table linen, paper, and any other and all necessities. Tell them to put taxes on rich men for a change. Tell them to put a tax on inheritances, stock certificates, automobiles, diamonds, rubies, pearls, high-priced silks, high-priced laces, broadcloth, all other trappings of the rich. Isist that you have carried the burden long enough.—Milwaukee Journal.

The action of the state senate in asking that State Game Warden Stone be removed, after his confession of perjury, is justified. Indeed, it should not be necessary to request this step. The governor of this state must be prepared to face severe condemnation if he keeps this man in office. Nor should Stone be permitted to "resign." He should be "fired," and thereafter he should be prosecuted. The governor cannot protect this falsifier and protect what remains of his own standing as a citizen.

It is understood that republicans contemplate contesting the election of the democratic ticket on the ground that it requires a three-fourths vote.

Their Ancient Feud
Willie Collier sat regarding Lillian Russell and De Wolf Hopper sadly the other day. The two were chatting together with animation. Hopper was apparently in his merriest mood. Miss Russell was blooming and blossoming in her luxuriant beauty. "Strange," said Mr. Collier, shaking his head. "This passing strange." "What's strange?" asked a friend. "Incredible," said Collier. "Had I not seen it with mine own eyes, I would never have believed that Mr. Hopper and Miss Russell had patched each other's feud." "You have never heard?" asked Collier. "Re-markable! They have hated each other for years. You see, neither one of them has ever invited the other to a single one of their marriages."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

A Pedestrian
"What is a pedestrian, papa?" asked a juvenile whose parent had just begun to run his own motor. "A pedestrian, my son," said the irritable papa, "is a person who gets in the way of motor cars to annoy the poor chauffeur."—Tit-Bits.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering. Therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

Mademoiselle Jackson sat down just behind Tankerlane, but facing his wife, who was sitting on the opposite side of the table. In that hour she was thankful for even the smallest of mercies, and the fact that his back was turned to the woman he did not wish to see, afforded him a momentary respite from the agonies of a most trying situation.

Mrs. Tankerlane and Lord Portlington resumed their lively conversation, but after a little while the former began to be aware that the actress was regarding her with an unusual amount of interest. At first she attributed this to the fascination which a beautiful frock has for all women, and especially for women who have to study the art of dressing for stage purposes. But after a time she began to realize that the interest she excited was due less to her clothes than her personality. The one was a compliment, but the other was an impertinence. Laura Tankerlane began to grow uncomfortable under the frequent glances which the actress cast at her, and she was glad when her husband suggested that it was time to go home.

Lord Portlington helped her on with her long sable opera cloak, and the waiter came forward with Tankerlane's overcoat and hat. For one brief moment Tankerlane's face was turned toward Mademoiselle Jackson, and as she saw to his horror that an ostentatious smile of recognition had flashed across her face. She rose to her feet, came across to him, and held out her hand. "Wal, this is a treat!" she said, with a rather forced American accent; "and how did you get here? Why, it must be three years since we met in Chicago."

"Really, mademoiselle," said Tankerlane, with a bow. "I think—I'm afraid you are mistaken. You are Mademoiselle Jackson, are you not?" "Yes, now," she replied, with a laugh. "But when I met you I was called Mrs. Bonsel, and that's my name still. If there's any good in being married and getting one's husband's name."

"Mrs. Bonsel!" cried Tankerlane, with well-simulated surprise. "Why, of course! What a duffer I am! Do you know, I never recognized you. And I've been watching the place tonight. You were splendid—yes, splendid. Laura let me introduce Mrs. Bonsel to you. I saw a good deal of her and her husband some years ago in America. Mrs. Bonsel—Mrs. Tankerlane; Mrs. Bonsel—Lord Portlington. Well, I am pleased; but you have altered, haven't you? I never recognized you. Well, this is a pleasure."

"It is indeed!" said Lord Portlington. "And tomorrow morning Mrs. Bonsel will awake like Lord Byron and find herself famous."

"I am pleased to meet you," said Laura, with a smile. "Any old friends of my husband's is a friend of mine."

"Your husband?" said Mrs. Bonsel, with an inquiring glance from one to the other. "Oh, yes, of course; how stupid of me! I got mixed up with the introductions. One always does, you know; I thought the other gentleman was your husband. And so you're married, are you?" and she turned to Tankerlane with a most bewitching smile.

"Oh yes, I'm married," he replied with a smile. "I'm so glad," she continued. "I think every man ought to be married. I only hope your married life will be as happy as mine has been. My husband will be in Paris tomorrow."

quise pleasure of goading the man to madness with every word that she uttered.

Lord Portlington and Mrs. Bonsel's companions saw nothing of the scene that was going on before their eyes, a scene which, if they had only known the facts, was in its way as dramatic as any they had witnessed in the theatre that night. The woman's words were commonplace enough, and might have been uttered by a mere acquaintance, who took a polite interest in the affairs of a man whom she had met some years previously. They did not know the bitter irony of them, for there was nothing in the woman's voice to betray her thoughts.

Laura Tankerlane, however, was well aware that something lay beneath the surface, and that this woman had been more to her husband than a mere acquaintance in the past. Her instinct had told her this, directly the woman had spoken to William Tankerlane. She remembered the almost impudent attention the actress had bestowed on her during the meal. And her observant mind had not forgotten the unsatisfactory way in which Mrs. Bonsel had concealed her surprise at hearing of Tankerlane's marriage.

She turned to the woman with one of her sweetest smiles. "You and your husband must come and see us, Mrs. Bonsel," she said genially. "We shall be delighted to know someone in Paris. Come tomorrow afternoon, four o'clock, to tea. And if Mr. Bonsel has not arrived, or doesn't care to come, well—we shall be just as glad to see you by yourself. We are staying at the Imperial."

"I shall be more than delighted," Mrs. Bonsel replied.

Mrs. Tankerlane hit his lip with vexation. He had intended leaving Paris the next day, but was caught now like a rat in a trap. "We must go now," said Laura, with a sharp glance at her husband's face, "and remember tomorrow."

"I shall not forget. Good night," she held out her hand, and Laura Tankerlane took it. Something in the woman's face appealed to her. She realized that this was no common adventuress, but a woman of distinction. And, if she had turned back as she left the room, she would have seen that there was no expression of anger or jealousy on Mrs. Bonsel's face, but only a soft look of pity in those large bright eyes.

William Tankerlane hardly spoke till they reached home. He was planning some way of escaping from Paris.

"Why did you ask that woman round tomorrow?" he said after he had taken off his overcoat. "My dear Will," she replied sweetly. "I thought she was an old friend of yours, and, besides, I like her face. She is a woman I should like to know."

"Well, I shan't be in at four o'clock tomorrow," he said sullenly. "You don't know who the woman is, or you wouldn't have asked her."

"I can guess who she was," Mrs. Tankerlane answered with a smile; "you were once in love with her. I should advise you to be present at our interview. She might tell me all sorts of things."

"You wouldn't care," he cried fiercely. "I wish to heaven that you did. You know how I love you."

The smile died from her face and she turned away from him. But William Tankerlane resolved that his wife should not be left alone with Mrs. Bonsel.

The next afternoon at 3:50 p. m. Tankerlane sat alone in the sitting-room at the Imperial. His wife had not yet returned from her shopping, though she had promised to be back at half-past three. He looked anxiously at the clock. He did not wish to be alone with Mrs. Bonsel. Then, without any warning, the door opened quietly and Mrs. Bonsel entered.

"I must apologize," she said softly. "Mrs. Tankerlane is downstairs. She told me to come straight up. She won't be a minute. She has a row on with the manager."

move from his side and seat herself in an armchair a couple of yards from him.

"It is funny that we should meet again," she continued; "yet, of course, it was inevitable, directly I came out of a way-back town in Ohio into the glare of the footlights."

"Why have you come here?" he said hoarsely. "What right have you to come here? All was over between us years ago. I gave you the money you asked—enough to keep you in modest comfort for all your days. I have done with you. You are no wife of mine."

"Only in the eyes of the law," she replied softly.

"Oh, that's your game, is it?" he said roughly. "Blackmail, eh? Well, how much do you want to keep your mouth shut?"

"I don't want anything," she answered. "I shall speak, if it pleases me, and, if it doesn't please me, I shall be silent. As for money, well, after last night, I am not likely to starve. By the bye, is your name Bonsel or Tankerlane?"

"Tankerlane," he replied curtly. It was not worth while telling a lie, or he would have done so.

"And this woman, does she think that she is your wife, or is it merely a temporary arrangement?"

He did not reply. He was, indeed, on the horns of a dilemma. He had either to confess to bigamy, or he had to cast a slur on the reputation of the woman he loved.

"Well?" she asked, after a pause. "Which is it? I should like to know—I shall, in fact, make it my business to know."

The struggle in Tankerlane's mind was sharp, but decisive. It stands to his credit that he spoke the truth. He was man enough to defend the honour of the woman whom he had betrayed.

IMPORTANT COURT DECISIONS

DEPRECIATION IN VALUE OF PROPERTY REPLEVINED.—In Pabst Brewing Company vs. Rapid Safety Filter Company, 107 New York Supplement, 163, plaintiff replevined an automobile from defendant, retaining it till the trial. Defendant secured judgment for possession, or, on failure to secure it, $1,000. Plaintiff thereupon tendered possession, demanding satisfaction of judgment, which defendant refused, on the ground that the machine had depreciated in value because of the removal of certain parts while in plaintiff's possession, but failing to assert that its condition was not the same at time of tender as at time of trial. The New York supreme court held that defendant's judgment, being for possession, was satisfied by the tender.

CONDUCTOR HURT FIGHTING TRAMPS

TRIES TO PUT THEM FROM HIS TRAIN AT KELLOGG

EYE AND EAR CUT IN MELEE

Finger of C. Murphy is Also Broken in Fight With Bums in Which Fireman Participated

While he was attempting to prevent a gang of tramps from stealing a ride on his train, Conductor C. Murphy running between here and Minneapolis on No. 2, a passenger train on the Milwaukee, which arrives in the city at 9:05 p. m., was attacked by several of them and in the fight which followed had his head injured about the eyes and one ear.

The conductor was aware of the fact that a gang of hoboes were on the train and upon arriving at Kellogg he immediately sought to put them off and a fight resulted. With the aid of the fireman all but two of the tramps were driven off the train and the run to La Crosse continued. When Mr. Murphy arrived in the city, which is the end of his run, he procured the services of a doctor and an examination revealed a cut over his left eye, a torn and bruised ear and a broken finger. The injuries were dressed and Mr. Murphy was able to proceed on his run this morning.

Two tramps were taken off No. 2 last night by the north side police, but as no complaint was lodged against them they were shipped out of the city this morning after spending the night at the station.

DEBATE FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION

The Franklin club will hold their meeting tonight, the question for debate being "Resolved, that a federal income tax is desirable." The leader for the affirmative is H. L. Taylor while the chief exponent of the undesirability of the income tax will be Rev. G. W. Fogg.

Much interest has been shown in this question and the debate this evening promises an animated discussion on both sides of the question. The subject is by no means new as it has been before the public for the past forty years. Many of the states have at various times had income taxes and in time have had them repealed. The citizens of the United States were at one time subject to a federal income tax but in trial case before the supreme court, it was proved to be illegal.

INVENTORY AT "Q" SHOPS BEING TAKEN

Storekeeper W. C. Stotera, with the aid of his two assistants from the general offices at Chicago, is taking the annual inventory of all the material in the car and locomotive shops at Grand Crossing. Unusual interest is being taken in the inventory this year as the officials are anxious to ascertain to what amount the expenses have been reduced since the order was issued several months ago compelling all requisitions for material to go through the Chicago offices, before it is furnished to any of the various departments.

SERVICES FOR CHAS. REED TOMORROW

The funeral of Charles Reed, who died last Saturday, will be held from the house at 1727 Charles street, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The arrangements are being attended to by the Woodmen of the World, of which Mr. Reed was a prominent member. All members of both of the camps are expected to be present.

The funeral was postponed until Mr. Reed's daughter could arrive here from Alabama. His three sons are also in the city for the funeral. Miller Bros. will have charge of the burial arrangements.

DYING SALOONS' BARGAIN SALES

GARY, Ind., April 8.—After the most spectacular night in their history, the bars of Gary closed their doors early today and the town is now "dry." The temperance wave which has swept Indiana has finally engulfed Gary and the engulfing process was accompanied by many unique sights.

Great was the demand of the thirty ones for a farewell drink, that hundreds of men stood in line, like theatre patrons, before the doors of the bars waiting for the bartenders to get time to serve them. One saloon which has cashed the paychecks of the workers in the steel mills reaped a fine harvest in the early morning hours and its closing receipts are estimated at several thousand dollars.

Other saloons held "bargain sales," disposing of all liquor at cost.

The law required that all bars go out of existence at midnight but the police winked at it and permitted them to remain open until daylight.

The closing is the result of a remonstrance filed a year ago.

WESTON SAYS HE IS FEELING FINE

MANSFIELD, Ohio, April 8.—Weston is resting here this morning before setting out for Bellvue later in the day.

Wednesday was the hardest that he had put through on the trip. He had to face a fierce wind during the entire day's walk from Wooster. When he reached Mansfield he had covered 826 miles since leaving New York. He said that he feels better than he did 40 years ago after covering a similar distance.

SEES STREAM OF BLOOD UNDER DOOR

LONDON, April 8.—Passing the home of James D. Rankin, a painter, 36, a neighbor woman this morning saw blood running from the crevices under the door. Her cries brought a crowd, the door forced open and Rankin was found lying on the floor with his throat cut from ear to ear. At his side lay a closed razor. Rankin was arrested in Colorado three months ago on a charge of wife desertion. He was returned to Madison county and since then has been living with his wife and had been working steadily.

CITY NEWS

REPAIR FENCE.—The sheer fence of the city drawbridge is being repaired and new timbers are being installed to replace the old ones broken by the ice. The work will be completed in about a week. The bridge protections will then be in fine shape.

BOATHOUSE WANDERS.—The launch house owned by Henry H. Niebuhr broke from its moorings near the old Colman lumber yards during the strong wind and was blown directly across the river. A couple of small launches tugged at it, but could not move it against the wind, so it was allowed to continue its journey and was tied up on the other side, awaiting calmer weather and the presence of a high powered launch, to tow her back.

HOUSTEAT SINKS.—The houseboat owned by W. V. Kidder, anchored opposite the Carville elevator in Black river, has been partly sunk as a result of the ice pulling packing from the seams of the barge. It will be raised again within a few days.

SELL BOOTHS.—The board of public works has disposed of four of the old voting booths which are being replaced by permanent polling places. These booths were disposed of to people who will use them for cottages along the river, and as boat-houses. They are collapsible and make convenient shelters.

LAWNS CULTIVATED.—Though the present cold weather would not seem to indicate the presence of spring, lawns about the city are being raked and cleaned up for the spring seeding, as within another two weeks the green carpets will begin to assume their spring beauty.

E. F. U. THURSDAY.—The entertainment and dancing party to be given by the E. F. U. is tonight, instead of having been held last night, as announced through a typographical error. The affair is to be held in Nicholson-Scott hall.

NEW SUPERVISORS.—Five new supervisors have been elected in the country districts as follows: Herman Roessler, Greenfield; E. C. Wall, Onalaska township; John M. Casberg, Holland; William Stratman, Barre; Richard Meinke, Burns.

PASSOVER FEAST.—La Crosse Jews are observing the feast of the Passover, which began April 5 at sunset and will continue for eight days. During this period there will

These Cities Report Terrific Gales—Toll of Yesterday's Storm a Score of Deaths

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 8.—A 58 miles an hour gale which raged all night caused the death of one person, the fatal injury of another, property loss of thousands of dollars, put telephone and electric light wires out of business and wound up by fanning a $65,000 blaze in a lumber yard to proportions that threatened to escape the control of the department.

John Veith, a brakeman, was blown from the roof of a car and died of a fractured skull. A 19 year old girl is dying in the hospital from being struck by a brick blown from a chimney. Fires of unknown origin started in a shed in the Hollister Lumber company's yard and swept through the freight yard of the New York Central, igniting car after car, until at one time half a hundred cars were on fire.

Buffalo Suffers Heavily. BUFFALO, N. Y., April 8.—One man killed, nine persons injured, and heavy damage to property resulted from the terrific windstorm that swept over Buffalo and vicinity last night and early today. At times the wind reached a velocity of 71 miles an hour, wrecking shipping, crippling trees and toppling over chimneys, trees and frame buildings.

Win. Fagel, aged 40, was crushed to death when a wagon in which he was riding, was overturned by the wind.

The damage to property in Buffalo alone will amount to thousands. Two big lake freighters were blown around their moorings and went aground. They were the J. J. S. Brown and the W. H. Truesdale.

Devastation Widespread. CLEVELAND, O., April 8.—When the last corner of the country swept by the windstorm of the past 48 hours is heard from, the loss of life will probably exceed a score and the property loss a million dollars.

These winds were the result of the unseasonable weather of the first of the week, which today is chased into the Atlantic ocean by a spell of cold weather. In places they reached a velocity of 70 miles an hour and all the states east of the Mississippi except the southern Atlantic coast were affected.

The storm's worst damage occurred in the extreme southern and northern portions of this territory. Mississippi, now that the toll is all in, reports 20 injured. In Michigan, 8 are dead from various causes, all due, however, to the high winds. Lake Erie, the center of the disturbance yesterday, has thus far no shipwreck to add to the tale of disaster. Three vessels were thought to be lost, but this morning reports came that all had reached port.

In London, Ont., six persons were injured, one fatally, when a fall chimney crashed through the roof of the Aberdeen public school, imprisoning 300 pupils and teachers. The firemen rescued the children with ladders.

The gale struck New York late last night at a speed of 60 miles an hour, creating havoc among the frame structures of the suburbs and sending small craft scurrying to shelter in the harbor.

A Kansas Blizzard. A favorite story in western Kansas years ago related how steadily the wind blew; a farmer said that the wind blew a sheaf of oats against his barn door, and kept it there three days.—Atchison Globe.

CLUBS

Mrs. E. A. Gleason entertained the Tuesday evening Five Hundred club last evening at her home on South Tenth street. There were three tables played.

Mrs. W. A. Powell and Mr. B. S. Smith took the prizes.

Mrs. A. L. Meigs entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Five Hundred club.

Miss Anna Fuller entertained the C. V. O. G. club Wednesday afternoon. Each guest was supposed to contribute some article of food of her own make, and furnish the recipe. This club meets at irregular intervals just as the spirit moves. There are six members.

Miss Josephine Sinclair entertained at a small coffee yesterday afternoon in honor of her cousin, Miss May Wheaton of Winona.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mrs. Edgar Gleason has returned from a six weeks' visit at Stevensville, Mont.

Mrs. Dunlap is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Goodspeed of Anoka are visiting relatives in the city.

THE BRIDAL GIFT

The tuscany and souvenir spoon have vanished entirely, and it is now quite the accepted thing to work something for your girl friend.

A present made for her is far more individual. For the engagement gift some made-at-home embroidery is decidedly the nicest thing.

There is no easier present to decide upon than the one for the coming housewife. She will want every imaginable centerpiece, doilies and table cover, not to speak of towel ends and pillow cases. Openwork, like the English and Madeira eyelet, is, perhaps, more dainty for the purpose than the heavier embroideries.

A PLEASED CUSTOMER

A few days ago one of our old customers came to our store to buy a set of Rogers' silver plated knives and forks. This is what she said: "When I was married, over 20 years ago, among my wedding presents was a set of Rogers' knives and forks bought from Irvine's store. They have been used on our table three times a day ever since and still show very little wear. Now I wish to buy a dozen knives and forks of the same make, to present to my daughter on her wedding day." We are still selling the very same make, the genuine Rogers', the kind we have always sold. Our stock is full and complete. Our price for 6 knives and 6 forks, the genuine Rogers', ranges from $3.50, $3.75 and $4. You take no chance when you buy from us. W. T. ## STORM CONTINUES TO CREATE HAVOC

DEATHS AND DISASTER ACCOMPANY HIGH WINDS

IN ROCHESTER AND BUFFALO

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 8.—A 58 miles an hour gale which raged all night caused the death of one person, the fatal injury of another, property loss of thousands of dollars, put telephone and electric light wires out of business and wound up by fanning a $65,000 blaze in a lumber yard to proportions that threatened to escape the control of the department.

John Veith, a brakeman, was blown from the roof of a car and died of a fractured skull. A 19 year old girl is dying in the hospital from being struck by a brick blown from a chimney. Fires of unknown origin started in a shed in the Hollister Lumber company's yard and swept through the freight yard of the New York Central, igniting car after car, until at one time half a hundred cars were on fire.

Buffalo Suffers Heavily. BUFFALO, N. Y., April 8.—One man killed, nine persons injured, and heavy damage to property resulted from the terrific windstorm that swept over Buffalo and vicinity last night and early today. At times the wind reached a velocity of 71 miles an hour, wrecking shipping, crippling trees and toppling over chimneys, trees and frame buildings.

Win. Fagel, aged 40, was crushed to death when a wagon in which he was riding, was overturned by the wind.

The damage to property in Buffalo alone will amount to thousands. Two big lake freighters were blown around their moorings and went aground. They were the J. J. S. Brown and the W. H. Truesdale.

Devastation Widespread. CLEVELAND, O., April 8.—When the last corner of the country swept by the windstorm of the past 48 hours is heard from, the loss of life will probably exceed a score and the property loss a million dollars.

These winds were the result of the unseasonable weather of the first of the week, which today is chased into the Atlantic ocean by a spell of cold weather. In places they reached a velocity of 70 miles an hour and all the states east of the Mississippi except the southern Atlantic coast were affected.

The storm's worst damage occurred in the extreme southern and northern portions of this territory. Mississippi, now that the toll is all in, reports 20 injured. In Michigan, 8 are dead from various causes, all due, however, to the high winds. Lake Erie, the center of the disturbance yesterday, has thus far no shipwreck to add to the tale of disaster. Three vessels were thought to be lost, but this morning reports came that all had reached port.

In London, Ont., six persons were injured, one fatally, when a fall chimney crashed through the roof of the Aberdeen public school, imprisoning 300 pupils and teachers. The firemen rescued the children with ladders.

The gale struck New York late last night at a speed of 60 miles an hour, creating havoc among the frame structures of the suburbs and sending small craft scurrying to shelter in the harbor.

A Kansas Blizzard. A favorite story in western Kansas years ago related how steadily the wind blew; a farmer said that the wind blew a sheaf of oats against his barn door, and kept it there three days.—Atchison Globe.

RUNAWAYS CAME TO LA CROSSE TO HIDE

Edward Siebrecht, aged 16, of Winona, has been bound over for alleged robbery of Ernest Wier by knocking him down and taking $3 from him. Edward Campbell, an alleged accomplice, is in Oklahoma, having fled. When the young men found out, in March, that their victim knew they robbed him, they fled to Chicago. They later came to La Crosse during the coldest part of the winter. Siebrecht nearly froze to death in a boxcar, being without an overcoat. From here they went to Oklahoma, where Siebrecht father now lives.

SCHOOL FOR W. N. G. OFFICERS MAY 4-5

Orders have been received here issued by Adjutant General C. R. Boardman of the National Guard, to the effect that the annual school for officers of the Wisconsin National Guard will be held at Camp Douglas May 4 and 5.

The orders which were issued at Madison Saturday outline the course of study. Examinations will be held at the close of the school. Lectures will be delivered by Major John F. Morrison, Colonel John G. Salsman, and Colonel R. B. McCoy. Officers who attend will receive three dollars per day.

CROWD GROWS AT "MARVEL" SHOW

The Listman Milling company entertained about as large a crowd as could be conveniently handled at their demonstration of Marvel flour today. The great interest which the housewives of La Crosse have shown in this demonstration has been augmented by the pleasant personality of Mrs. Hansel, the demonstrator, and by the many valuable and dainty recipes and culinary hints she offers.

The demonstrations are given every afternoon in the Edwards' building, adjoining the Tribune building on the south, and from two to five o'clock are visited by hundreds of women. As the entertainments are entirely free, many are availing themselves of the opportunity of calling upon Mrs. Hansel.

POLICE ON TRACK OF MARY CARTER

HAVE PICTURE OF WOMAN WHO VICTIMIZED MERCHANTS

OTHER MERCHANTS HIT TOO

Barron Cashes Small Checks Which Were Paid Then Gave Out $25 in Cash on "Bum" One

Mary Carter, the much wanted check worker, who victimized La Crosse business men a week ago is under surveillance. The police department now has her past record and photograph and have succeeded in locating her whereabouts.

Before the woman came to La Crosse she operated at Milwaukee.
Accompanied by a male companion she arrived here March 21 and secured rooms in the Tribune building on the second floor. They departed on separate trains Saturday night.

As will be remembered, the Carter woman victimized the Doerflinger company, the Nicholson-Scott company, the E. R. Barron company and C. B. Stevens by a clever game.
She deposited a sum of money with the State bank of La Crosse and passed good checks several times upon her intended victims, only to pay the way for larger ones when she was ready to leave the city. The E. R. Barron company was caught with a $25.00 check.

The bank's statement of her account shows that she drew three checks payable to the Barron company before springing the large one.
Two of them were for $3 each and the other for $2.50. They were dated March 22, 23 and 27 respectively.

HALF-HOLIDAY ON MAY 13 PLANNED

A half-holiday for the business houses of La Crosse on May 13 the opening day of the Minnesota-Wisconsin league in the city of La Crosse!

This is the slogan of the directors of the local baseball association.
"Yes we will make a preconcerted effort to get the merchants to close up all business houses on the day of our opening game," said President Henry Rooney of the local club.
"This is the opening of the Minnesota-Wisconsin league and I think the business houses of the city of La Crosse should at least show some respect for our efforts to establish a league in which La Crosse should play an important part, after we had been so unceremoniously dropped from the Wisconsin-Illinois league.
I understand that in nearly all, in fact, I think that all of the other cities in the league will celebrate the opening day with a half-holiday and I see no reason why we should not.
The people of La Crosse are not taking the interest in baseball that we had expected, and in regard to financing the club we have met with poor response from our local business men. However, I think that there has been some misunderstanding and it will be explained in a satisfactory manner and we will receive the hearty support of all of the La Crosse concerns as well as the fans."

After this lengthy talk the club president assured the reporter that everything was fine and that the prospects were brighter than ever for a good season.

The local organization has ordered new uniforms that will be something new to the local fans. They are gray with a green strip and the word La Crosse is inscribed down the front with a monogram on the left breast. The suits have the new military collar that has been used by the Chicago Cubs.

The directors will make an inspection trip to the park in a few days and look over the grounds and buildings. It is not improbable that they will order the construction of a number of boxes in the grand stand.
The directors will also open bids Saturday for advertising privileges for the season.

The opening dates for the locals are as follows: La Crosse will play the first game with Winona Wednesday, May 12, at Winona, the team will then return to La Crosse for a game Thursday the day of the local opening. The team again goes to Winona Friday and returns Saturday when the series closes. Duluth and Superior follow here with a series of four games each.

President Rooney has signed A. H.
Adams of McGregor for the locals.
Adams is principal of the schools at McGregor and has had considerable experience as a ball player, having played first base with the Dubuque team of the Three I league in 1907.

Dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestine, and besides, one triangle will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to begin taking Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to be thoroughly cured of Indigestion.

DOMACHOWSKI, HE WAS JUST FOOLING

presented telegrams to show that Fenelon had asked for a pair.

A Joke, Says Domachowski.
Assemblyman Domachowski was a cheerful witness. He was called after the committee had made futile attempts to draw out of Assemblyman Zimmerman and Assemblyman Leuch what they knew of charges of corruption in the election of Senator Stephenson.

"Do you know anything about any charges of corruption in connection with the election of United States senator?" asked Assemblyman Bray.
"I know about that $1,500 there's been so much talk about," answered Mr. Domachowski cheerfully and with a smile.

"Tell us about it," ordered Mr.
Bray.

The Tribune Made Him Sore.
Then the witness said that on March 2 or 3 or both days Assemblyman Kneen had shown him a copy of a La Crosse paper in which Doma-chowski's name appeared in black type as one of those democrats who would stay out of the joint convention and thus assist in the election of Stephenson. He said this stirred him up. It made him mad. He did not like it. Then another copy of the paper was shown him with the same thing in it. His next step, according to his testimony, was that he went to Fritz's saloon where he met a man named Joe O'Neil, a traveling liquor salesman. He said O'Neil was from Milwaukee and he knew him and that when he came in O'Neil asked him how much it took to turn him. He said he supposed that O'Neil had seen it in the paper that he was going to stay out of the joint convention and thus assist in the election of Stephenson. He said he answered O'Neil by saying that it took $1,500.

Couldn't Fix It For More.
The witness said that O'Neil told him that he could fix it for more than that and would do so the next morning.

He told O'Neil that that was all right, to go ahead and fix it.

Mr. Domachowski said that this was all a joke; that he never took it seriously and that he knew O'Neil was joking.

He said that the next day after Mr. Stephenson had been elected he had jokingly spoken of it in the assembly chamber and that Assembly-

WHEAT "KING" IS MAKING MILLIONS

SHAKES DOWN SHORTS AT WILL FOR VAST FORTUNES

IS MASTER OF THE SITUATION

James A. Patten Has Complete Control of the Wheat Market and Will Make a Million Today

CHICAGO, April 8.—After cleaning up between $1,000,000 and $1-500,000 during the three days which ended in yesterday's wild session in the wheat pit, James A. Patten, "The King of the Wheat Market," today continued unloading his long line of May wheat and taking profits. When May opened at $1.25 1-4 this morning, Patten brokers immediately began to sell in large lots, giving evidence that their principal would get rid of almost as much grain today as he did yesterday.

It is impossible to get an accurate statement of how much he unloaded yesterday but well informed brokers say he sold about 3,000,000 bushels of May wheat and considerable July.
Patten bought most of this wheat at $1.00 to $1.04, giving him a profit of from 20 to 25 cents on every bushel sold.

Patten is unloading his wheat with great skill. Many of the big shorts, chiefly Wall street men, are hard pressed and are willing to pay almost any price for May wheat. Realizing this, Patten is giving them large quantities at the record prices prevailing.

During the first hour this morning his enormous sales sent the price of May wheat down from $1.25 1-4 to $1.24 5-8. Then he ceased selling for a time and the market immediately bounced back to the open figure. On the spur Patten again sold heavily, unloading probably more than he did earlier in the day.

This appears to be Patten's system —to sell heavily while the market is at $1.25 or over and to stop selling at once as soon as it falls below $1.25. Having such an enormous quantity of the cereal he can thus control the market at will.

It is expected that before the day is over he will have taken nearly $1-000,000 more in profits.

It is estimated Patten's profit to date amounts to $5,000,000.

man Zimmerman had heard him and that Zimmerman had kindly advertised him all over the capitol. He said Zimmerman had asked him if it was so and he had answered, "Sure thing."

Had 'em All Going
A few minutes later Senator Pearson, he said, came to him and asked if the story was true, and that he answered that it was.

About fifteen minutes later, said Domachowski, he was cornered by all the reporters for the Milwaukee papers. He said he told the reporters that it was true that he had been offered money to stay out of the chamber but he qualified all his statements by saying that it was all a joke and that he "thought these fellows understood it was a joke."

Asked as to why he made these statements, he replied:
"I don't why today, unless it was because everybody seemed to think that the fellows who stayed out of there had their pockets full of money and I didn't want to be classified that way."

"So you fixed up this story?" said Assemblyman Ingalls, "and told that you had been offered money so that the fact that you stayed in would show that you didn't take it?"

"Yes; I guess that's it."
Ramsey was "Paired"
Mr. Ramsey was then called to the stand.

"When you got the telegram, you had no doubt that Fenelon was well enough to send the telegram and send it himself."

"That is what I supposed."
"Have you received any information since that would lead you to think that you were correct in that assumption?"

"I really believe that, yet."
"I mean have you received any information to lead you to think Fen-elon did not send that telegram?"

"No, sir."

Towne Needed Money
Assemblyman Towne testified that he had not been offered any money to remain out of the joint convention March 4, the day on which Senator Stephenson was re-elected. He did say, however, that during a conversation with Mr. Wayland that he might have said he would be financially embarrassed by reason of some persecution from some of his political enemies if he stayed out of the joint convention. And he thought that Mr. Wayland said to him that it was easy to arrange for loans these days and that the interest was low.

He was not sure, however, that this conversation was with Mr. Wayland though he was quite sure that he had this kind of a conversation with someone. He explained in considerable detail his financial condition and the fact that his farm was mortgaged. He said this mortgage was held by a client of James A. Stone, a lawyer of Reedsburg. Two letters were admitted in evidence which Mr.
Stone had written to Mr. Towne recently asking that he make a payment upon the mortgages. He was not sure but that he thought perhaps that Mr. Stone's request for a payment at this time might in some way be connected with politics. In answer to a question from the committee he was inclined to believe that the request would not have been made at the time that it was made had it not been for the fact that he had stayed out of the joint convention.

Asked if he had written any letters to Mr. Stone or Mrs. Stone a client concerning this mortgage he said that he wrote once asking that they permit him to pay off the mortgage in full as he thought he could borrow some money some place else at as low or a lower rate.

Husting Objects

Senator Hustling in the afternoon entered formal objection to the committee examining witnesses relative to the election of United States senator by the legislature. At the night session he made a blanket objection to the nomination of Peter F. Leuch, Fred R. Zimmerman, J. A. Doma-chowski, John T. Farrell and Thomas F. Ramsey. He contended that the committee had no power to inquire into the election by the legislature and insisted that both the assembly and the senate had, by formal action, recognized that this committee did not have any such power. He said that the assembly had adopted a joint resolution providing for a joint committee to investigate the subject of the election by the legislature and that by adopting a resolution providing for the appointment of a senate committee to investigate the election by the legislature, had also formally recognized this fact. He added further that this committee had previously, by a majority vote of its members, decided that under the resolution which this investigation was proceeding, the subject of Isaac Stephenson's election by the legislature should not be investigated.

Calls it Whitewash

"You are assuming functions which do not belong to you," said Senator Hustling. "I cannot understand the purpose of calling these witnesses and going outside the scope of the resolution unless it be that you want to render futile any further investigation of this subject. You are

ship of the sixty-nine companies taken in by the so-called trust agreement was the reorganizing of companies without change of ownership.

To prohibit such an amalgamation of interests under one ownership would be equivalent to ordering a man to keep his money in separate pockets or in separate bank accounts, the lawyers contend.

They believe that in the suit to dissolve the Standard, the whole theory of modern commerce is on trial.

After Rosenthal's argument today, David T. Watson, of Pittsburgh, will present additional Standard Oil facts.
John G. Johnson of Philadelphia will conclude for the defense.

Complete Arguments Saturday.
Counsel for both the government and the Standard informed the court today that the argument would be completed by Saturday evening. The counsel for the Standard promised to complete their argument Friday, leaving the government Saturday for rebuttal.

Attorney Milburn during the morning had much to say about the law of supply and demand. This, he declared, and not wicked conspiracy, has been the cause of the great growth of the Standard.

"Compliments" Americans.

"If we were a monopoly and fixed prices as we saw fit, the man who sinks the well and produces oil would be here to tell you about our monopolistic methods. The thread that runs through this case is that we practice oppression. This is a free country. When the people are oppressed they make a noise that rumbles around the world. The American people don't wait to be hurt.
They cry before they are hurt."

The profits on the pipe lines, according to Attorney Milburn, are paper profits only. The rates for transporting oil through the lines, he said, were made high, so high that other concerns could not afford to send oil in that way. The rates were filed as required by the rate law that made pipe lines common carriers. No one ever complained of the rates, and the proper place to make such complaint, Milburn said, was the interstate commerce commission. The only shipper that ever paid the pipe line companies the rates that were charged on these tariffs is the Standard Oil company itself, he declared.

Denies Pipe Line Monopoly.
"Mr. Morrison, with all his persistence," Milburn declared, "never asked any of our bookkeeping experts about these pipe line entries.
He made a point of asking everybody who did not know. Our pipe line monopoly is such only in the minds of the government attorneys."

Milburn declared that the pipe lines were not common carriers.

CHANGING SENTIMENT
Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village."

Goldsmith in his "Deserted Village," spoke of a certain chapel where those who "went to scuff, remained to pray." So in life, one often laughs at what he does not understand and later, when he does understand, his laugh turns to praise.

There were some who doubted the merits of Newbro's "Herpicide," the scalp germicide and hair-dressing; but since they have tried it, they are now among its best friends and strongest endorsers. Herpicide kills the germ that eats the hair off at the root, and the hair then grows again. As a hair dressing it is incomparable, try it. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

When the blood becomes infected with the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, the symptoms are soon manifested. The mouth and throat ulcerate, copper-colored spots appear, a red rash breaks out, the hair begins to come out, and usually sores and ulcers show themselves on different parts of the body. At the first sign of the disease S.S.S. should be taken, for the trouble is too powerful and dangerous to trifle with. If allowed to run on the tendency is to work down and attack the bones and nerves, and sometimes it makes a complete physical wreck of the sufferer. The disease can make no such headway if S.S.S. is commenced and used according to directions; its progress can be stopped, the poison removed, and health preserved. S.S.S. goes into the blood and removes the insidious virus, cleanses the circulation and makes a complete and permanent cure by driving out the cause. S.S.S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and blemishes, and when S.S.S. has thoroughly purified the circulation no trace of the disease is left. S.S.S., a purely vegetable remedy, cures Contagious Blood Poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, tested and proven for more than forty years. Home treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write.

How one man fooled his wife

She had been using her "favorite" baking powder. Wouldn't think of trying anything else, because "mother always used it," or some similar excuse. Hubby said she was prejudiced. He figured if Calumet, the new baking powder, selling at a moderate price, could be so successful, there must be some good in it. So he took a hand, and bought a can of Calumet, emptied the can containing her "favorite" baking powder and filled it with Calumet.

That evening, unsuspecting the trick, Wifey prepared and served some of her famous biscuit— piping hot, temptingly browned and puffed up to airy lightness, they were even more delicious than usual. Hubby, after considerable difficulty, succeeded in convincing her that the basis of the improvement was Calumet Baking Powder. And so an everlasting friend for Calumet was made.

This truthful little incident simply proves that the housewife is oftentimes prejudiced against all baking powders except the one she has been using for years. She imagines that no other kind can possibly be as good. This is a mistaken impression. A trial of Calumet will prove that it is purer, more reliable; it has a greater leavening power than any other baking powder made. And it is moderate in price.

ICEBERG TURNS AND DROWNS 1,463

BERLIN, April 8.—A huge iceberg on which 1,500 Russian fishermen were working near Riga was suddenly driven toward the open sea and but 37 of the number were able to escape, according to a dispatch from Riga in today's Lokal Anzeiger. One version is that the iceberg overturned while far out at sea and that all of the 1,463 persons were drowned. Another dispatch says that the iceberg is still drifting farther out to sea and that scores of fishermen have fallen into the sea. Boats have set out to follow the berg in the hope of rescuing the men who may still be imprisoned on it. An incoming vessel at Riga says it sighted the iceberg but saw no sign of life. This tends to confirm the rumor that the berg turned over and makes the probable loss of life between 1,400 and 1,500. The fishermen were fishing from the iceberg. It was one of several that appeared to have been firmly frozen to the shore. The launching of the big berg came without warning and it got under headway with surprising speed.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.

"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended."

$1,600 in cash and jewelry valued at $2,000. The police believe the robbers were three in number but have been unable to locate them.

The safe was completely wrecked by the explosive but the sound was muffled by heavy blankets thrown about the safe and the robbery did not become known until noon today.

Reports that a big touring car was seen driving from the scene of the robbery lead the police to believe that the robbers escaped in that way.

The robbers had effected an entrance by picking the lock of the front door. On a billiard table in the store was found an empty bottle labeled nitroglycerine and wrapped in a Pittsburgh newspaper. This aroused the suspicion that the robbers came from Pittsburgh.

SOO BEGINS IMPROVEMENTS.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 8.—Construction work calling for an expenditure of a million dollars was begun today by the Soo line on its terminal improvements in North and Northeast Minneapolis. About 3,000 feet of elevated trestle work will be constructed.

IMPROVEMENTS TO KEEP LABOR BUSY

NO IDLENESS IN LA CROSSE THIS SUMMER

FOUR MILES OF WATER MAINS

Four Miles of Sewers, Vast Park and Bath Improvements and New Street Pavement

The coming summer promises to be a record breaker in the line of city improvements and there will be employment galore for laboring men in La Crosse this year.

Among the most extensive of the city improvements will be the laying of over four miles of water mains, the contract for which has already been let. In addition to this there will be about four miles of sewer laid. This is the largest amount of sewer that has ever been laid in the city of La Crosse in one summer.

The cost of laying the water mains will be $16,800 and it is expected that the work will keep in the neighborhood of 30 men busy for about three months. The sewer work which includes the laying of the huge trunk sewer the like of which has never been seen in the city and will cost from $100,000 to $105,000 and will provide work for about 150 men the greater portion of the summer.

Besides the water and sewer there will be $75,000 expended for park purposes and while not all of this will be spent this summer it is expected that the greater share of the work will be started at least. At present the president of the park commission, Joseph Hixon, is in California, and no meeting has been called this year. His return is expected almost any time now, and as soon as the new administration goes into office, the work will probably be figured on. From the present indications the work will probably be commenced on the river front, where considerable improvement has been made in recent years, but which still lacks much of the beauty that can be obtained with a larger expenditure of money.

There is talk too of making the Loscy boulevard into a beautiful driveway. This great project which would cost a considerable amount of money will not be carried out by the city but by the residents of the town of Campbell who have property adjoining the city limits and who are willing to stand for the expense.

Street Improvements is another big item which will employ a large number of men and which will cost about $25,000. There are several miles of pavement to be laid this summer and the citizens of the city are still clamoring for more pavements, the laying of which will have to be postponed until the summer of 1910.

The new bathroom and bathing pool will be one of the most valuable, though cheapest of the works planned. The plans for the new bath have already been made and they are conceded to be a model for beauty and simplicity. The cost of building the new bath will be approximately $5,000 and it will accommodate about 500 people. The new bathing pool will be built inland eliminating the danger that extending out into the lagoon at Pettibone park which offers an ideal spot for boating and aquatic sports.

FLYNN SHOWING DUBUQUE SYSTEM

HEALTH SPECIALIST GIVING LECTURES THERE

COMES TO LA CROSSE LATER

Man Who Set Davenporters to Seeking Good Health is Doing Same Thing in Dubuque

Professor W. Earl Flynn, who will conduct The Tribune good health campaign in La Crosse is now engaged in a similar campaign in Dubuque under the auspices of the Telegraph-Herald. Mr. Flynn came from Davenport to La Crosse, but owing to the fact that the churches of this city are conducting evangelistic services, the campaign was postponed for three weeks. Professor Flynn will therefore come to La Crosse from Dubuque.

In the latter city he is drawing large crowds at his lectures, and is making a decidedly good impression. He is stirring up the old town as it has never before been stirred. His gospel of right living is taking even better than it took in Davenport.

Meanwhile the interest in the campaign in Davenport is not decreasing and the classes organized in the various churches are continuing their work. Others who are not members of these classes, but who took the Flynn course, are keeping up their exercises and are united in their expressions of satisfaction.

SISTER OF MRS. WM. DRAKE DEAD

Mrs. William Drake, 125 South Fifth street, yesterday received a telegram from Bozeman, Mont., announcing the death of her sister, Mrs. William McCullough. She had a postal card from her Monday, and while she had been suffering with rheumatism it was not believed her illness was of a serious character. It is presumed here that the rheumatism went to her heart, although nothing was contained in the telegram to substantiate this.

Mrs. McCullough moved with her husband and two daughters, Grace and Florence, to Bozeman from Morris, Minn., five years ago. She never lived here. Mr. Drake has wired to Bozeman and may go there to take charge of the body. It is likely interment will be made at Fox Lake, her old home, beside her father and mother.

TO GO AFTER OUR FARM MACHINERY

CHICAGO, April 8.—A special cable to the Daily News from Berlin says:

A determined effort to wrest from the American manufacturers of agricultural implements, the commanding position they have long held in the German market is foreshadowed by the action of officials of the leading agrarian organizations. A variety of farming appliances are already made in Germany but heretofore harvesting machines, mowers and binders have been largely imported from America and chiefly from Chicago.

Three of the most influential farmers' organizations in Germany have banded together and propose to form a company with a capital of $1,000,000, erect a factory with a capacity of 20,000 mowing machines a year.

"PURE SHOE" BILL LATEST REFORM

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 8.—A pure shoe bill was introduced in the house here by Representative Kowalski. It provides that all shoes in which other materials than leather is used must bear that fact in plain statement on the sole together with the quantity of paper or other material used.

Prison made shoes must bear the prison label.

TRAGEDY IN ILLICIT LOVE.

PEORIA, Ill., April 8.—A special from Loda, Ill., tells of a double tragedy early yesterday which resulted in a murder and a suicide. P. W. Ross, a railway man, shot and killed Mrs. Jessie Staley and then ended his own life by poison and a gun. Ross, who boarded at the Staley home, committed the deed while the husband of the woman was absent from the house. He then went to his room, drank carbolic acid and fired a bullet into his head.

CONFERENCE ON STRIKE.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 8.—All the marine laborers on the lakes are making their headquarters in this city. Negotiations for a settlement with packagefreight lines are under way between the labor leaders and the line managers, and a conference between the two will be held this afternoon.

EXPECTS EARLY SETTLEMENT.

CLTVELAND, O., April 8.—President Peter Robinson of the local Marine Engineers' Beneficial association declared today he believed an amicable adjustment of the difficulties between the vessel owners and the marine engineers, oilers and firemen would be reached soon. The cooks, stewards and seamen have talked of going out in sympathy in case of a strike. At present it is believed the outcome will be that the engineers will go to work without contracts of any sort. That will leave in abeyance the matter of recognition of the union.

Raising the Rates.

President-elect Taft tells a good golfing story. A political friend of his invented a plan whereby he kept his 8 or 9 year old son from shocking his mamma by repeating swear words and slang, a practice to which he was rather addicted. Every time the little fellow used a naughty word his father gave him 5 cents on the promise not to use it again. The friend had great faith in the power of this system until one day recently when he was chatting with half a dozen guests before dinner.

His home adjoins a golf links, and little Willie, who had been out walking near them with his nurse, burst into the drawing room, his blue eyes dancing with enthusiasm, his pink cheeks bulging in a triumphant smile.

"Oh, papa, papa!" he cried, "I've just heard a new one that's worth a quarter."—Judge.

NEWS OF NEARBY VILLAGES AND TOWNS

TOMAH IN FAVOR OF THE PARKWAY

TOMAH, Wis., April 8.—(Special.) The people's choice of aldermen in election indicates where they stand on the question of improvement. Without exception they have selected men who have expressed themselves in favor of a parkway plan of paving Superior avenue and of seeking other improvements in the city. Just where the women stand on the question of voting is shown by the fact that only two women in the city voted for the state superintendent, this in the face of the fact that the women took an active part in the circulation of nomination papers for one of the candidates. The election was as follows: First ward, Mr. L. W. Earle; Second ward, Mr. Kyle; Third ward, Mr. Steve Kellogg.

Miss Hazel Squires who is attending school at Winona is home for a short visit with her parents.

Plans submitted for city lighting.

SPARTA, Wis., April 8.—(Special.)—The Sparta common council met for its last regular meeting last evening and much business of importance was transacted. A canvass of the vote of the election was made and revised returns show that the city was carried for license by 40 majority.

Plans and specifications were submitted to the board for the installing of an electric light plant by the city in connection with the city water station and the estimated cost of construction was $10,000. As it will be necessary for the city to install new pumps, boilers, etc., the total cost of installation will probably reach $16,000. It is estimated that the annual maintenance would be about $4,900. The council has taken the matter under advisement.

A resolution was passed granting the Illinois Bridge company of Chicago the contract for building a concrete bridge over Beaver creek on East Main street, the contract price to be $3,140.

The ordinance relating to the removal and appointment of policemen in the city was amended to provide that the mayor may have the power of removing such officers when he deems it for the best interests of the city.

The treasurer's report was also read.

Vote on Supt. of Schools.

Eleven precincts of 36 in Monroe county give La France Wood a majority of 104 votes for superintendent of schools. The complete returns of the county are not obtainable but it is estimated that Wood will get a small plurality in the county.

In eleven districts Cary received 526 votes, Hewitt 152, Hooper 228, Wood 630.

Barnes, for justice of the supreme court, received 558 votes in the city of Sparta, and 389 in Tomah.

Upholds Circuit Court.

The supreme court has handed down the decision in the Bratz-Stark case affirming the decision of the circuit court of this district. The case was brought by Mrs. Minnie Stark for alleged negligence on the part of the defendant in setting a brush fire. The circuit court decided in favor of the defendant and the plaintiff appealed. T. P. Abel represents the defendant.

FORT DE FRANCE NOT TO HARBOR CASTRO
PARIS, April 8.—The French government today, acting in concert with England and America, decided to order the expulsion of Cipriano Castro from Martinique. Castro is now at Fort de France, Martinique, and an order will likely be issued at once for his deportation.

Representations have been made to France that Castro's return to Venezuela or even to some base of operations close to Venezuela is likely to involve that country in a series of internal troubles, similar to those which she has but lately emerged from.

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints causing rheumatism. O. T. Erhart.

JOHN SMITH IS GIVEN A CHAIR
"Old John" Smith, 1606 Berlin street, an aged veteran from the civil war, and prominent old settler of the north side is happy.

Smith has just been discharged from the La Crosse Lutheran hospital where he has been confined for several months on account of injuries to his legs received last fall, and the La Crosse branch of the humane society has just presented him with a big wheeled invalid chair so he can get around again.

Smith was hurt while working for the city on the streets by having a large heavy plank fall across his legs in such a manner as to severely bruise him. Since that time he has been unable to use them. The chair was purchased through the agency of Humane Officer Charles H. Berry, and its use will be given to the old soldier as long as he requires it.

SWEPT OVER NIAGARA
This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current—Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease. Take Ely's Kidney Pills at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back one $1.00 bottle 'holly cured me," writes J. R. Blankenship of Belk, Tenn. Only 50c at O. T. Erhart's.

FRUIT ORDERS A NEW POSTPONEMENT
Judge Fruit has signed an order adjourning the Mauston term of court from April 13 to May 10, when Judge O'Neill of Neillsville will open the court.

Owing to the illness of Judge Fruit the local lawyers have been put to considerable inconvenience by the delay of court proceedings. Out of the 18 other circuit judges in the state twelve have May terms of court that will occupy their attention and it is almost impossible to secure any of them to conduct court in the local district.

SPAULDINGS BEAT CHATFIELD ORPHANS
PRESTON, Minn., April 8.—(Special.)—Chicago Spaulding's (baseball) team defeated the Chatfield Orphans here last evening by a score of 6 to 3. The Chicago pitcher struck out 21 men while the Orphans only got one hit.

HIGHEST HONOR BESTOWED ON MAN

"The highest honor ever bestowed on man," was the theme of the sermon last night at the First Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. A. Lincoln Shute. The text was Romans 8:15, "For ye received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father." In outline Mr. Shute spoke as follows:

"Since the fall of man by sin, two classes are recognized all through the Scriptures: 'The seed of the serpent' and the 'sons of God'; 'the sons of the evil one' and the sons of the kingdom; 'the children of the devil' and the children of God. There are two families and two fathers.

"The false teaching that God is a universal Father, claims that sons have the Father's nature; that this is by creation, and hence there is no need of a new creation, the new birth; but only a natural and inevitable development; that all men are under God's parental government, and hence subject only to discipline and not to punishment; that the atonement is not necessary; that if we are children, then we are also heirs of God and certain of final salvation.

But we are not the children of God every nation of men by descent from a common father and interdependent, because he made us; he made the beasts also, but they are not his children and our brothers. To be a child of God, means to have the life and moral likeness of God. It is preposterous to think of all the most abandoned criminals as the sons of God. Men are not brothers because God made them, but because 'He made of one We need a brotherhood around Jesus Christ as the central and uniting personality.

"No one is under a parental government for the sinner except that of his father, the devil. He is under the moral government of God, subject to the law of rewards and penalties, while God in love and mercy pleads with man to become God's child through faith in Jesus and to come into the divine family where God can deal with him as a child. If he will not be a child, he will have to deal with him as an enemy, a rebel.

"When God offers power to man to become God's son, urges us to receive the spirit of adoption, and declares, 'Except one be born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God,' he warns us in unmistakable terms that we are not already sons of his. This he directly declares to the unbelievers: 'Ye are of your father the devil. Naturally we are not children of God, but of the devil, a fact which we are getting too proud to admit. An entire change of relationship is a necessity.

"This is to be by adoption out of the family of the devil into the family of God; and by the new birth, by which we shall receive the life of God and the moral likeness of God. This can be only through faith in Jesus as our Savior. He alone bridges the gulf that has made between man and God. He that hath the Son, hath the life; he that hath not the Son, hath not the life, but the wrath of God abideth on him. To be born is to become a child; to be born of God, is to become a child of God. And this the highest honor ever bestowed on man."

Tonight the subject is 'How May I Know that I Am a Child of God—That I Am Saved?'

The dead sure thing doesn't always come to life.

AUTOS MAY VISIT CITY OF THE DEAD

BAN IS REMOVED AT ANNUAL MEETING YESTERDAY

MEDARY AGAIN IS PRESIDENT

Old Officers are Re-elected by Oak Grove Cemetery Association at Calvert's Office

At a meeting of the Oak Grove Cemetery association held yesterday the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year:

President—J. S. Medary.
Vice president—S. F. Hyde.
Secretary—Robert Calvert.
Treasurer—E. H. Hankerson.

It was also decided by the association that during the coming year automobiles and bicycles would be allowed in the cemetery, providing owners of lots used the vehicles for visiting their lots between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Identification tickets will be required at the gate. The tickets may be obtained by lot owners at the office of the secretary, Robert Calvert, in a few days. Other business of minor importance was also transacted.

A Poor Prospect.

"A dangerous neighborhood you're living in, colonel," said a newspaperman to Charles Edwards of the democratic congressional campaign committee, a few nights ago in Washington. "Been four highway robberies there in the past month. Aren't you afraid that somebody will hold you up and go through you some night?"

"Should say not," said the big Texan. "Why, Ah've got so few means on my person at the present time that the robber who goes through me will get himself in debt."—Washington Star.

LIKE FINDING MONEY

O. T. Erhart, the popular druggist, is making an offer that is just like finding money for he is selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half-price. In addition to this large discount he agrees to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is only recently, through the solicitation of Druggist Erhart that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents, and urged the proprietors to allow him to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified his good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, O. T. Erhart will return your money.

The specific is very pleasant to take, coming in the form of small granules, and there are sixty doses in every package.

ROAD APPEAL IS DELAYED BY BOND

INSUFFICIENT TO PERMIT COMMISSION'S APPOINTMENT

JUDGE BRINDLEY SO DECIDES

Town of Campbell Wins Point in Fight Over Restoration of Abattoir Road

The appeal to appoint a commission to review the action of the town board of Campbell in discontinuing the abattoir road was argued before Judge Brindley yesterday and it was decided that the commission could not be appointed as the bonds which accompanied the appeal were insufficient.

This road was repaired at the expense of the county and then taken over by the town which soon discontinued it. Action was then taken to have the road taken over by the county and the matter was appealed. Judge Brindley accordingly proceeded with the necessary measure to appoint the commission, but Wolfe and Wolfe representing the town of Campbell objected on the ground that the bond accompanying the appeal was insufficient. The statute provides that the bond shall cover all expenses which may be incurred and Judge Brindley sustained the objection. Attorney Ross, who appeared for the appellant, accepted the ruling of the court.

BREAK HEARTS OF TWO YOUNG LOVERS

SANDUSKY, O., April 8.—Mrs. Valentine Fries was taken from her husband by order of the Sandusky court this afternoon. Valentine Fries, aged 17, heir to a fortune of $100,000, was awarded to the custody of Frank Krone, his grandfather and guardian. He will be taken immediately to Krone's home in Cleveland. Under the court's ruling, Mrs. Fries is to have the privilege of visiting Valentine every Saturday afternoon.

"I don't believe this boy was capable of choosing a wife," said Judge Reed. "I believe he was improperly influenced."

Valentine cannot be taken further away from Sandusky, or Cleveland without consent of the court and notification of the girl wife.

After the decision, Attorney J. P. Dawley fought to keep his girl wife away from Valentine altogether. Suit to appoint a guardian was begun by Valentine in Sandusky. An action to annul the marriage of the couple is pending in Cleveland.

After the order of the court was given young Mrs. Fries buried her head in her arms and wept. Valentine disregarded the order of the court and went around to her side. Hazel stood up and their lips met in a long kiss. Valentine was taken from the court room through the sheriff's room. Mrs. Fries broke away from the crowd and hurried to the sheriff's office. There again, she met Valentine and interrupted the conversation with his mother to kiss him again. Then she was led away by her relatives weeping.

UP BEFORE THE BAR

N. H. Brown, an attorney of Pittsfield Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For Chills, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Headache they work wonders. 25c at O. T. Erhart's.

PENALTIES FOR POSTAL EMPLOYEES

Don't get sore at the mail collector because he refuses to give you back the letter you have dropped in the box or at the carrier if he declines to tell you something about your neighbor's mail. Under the new system of demerit marks instituted by Uncle Sam the postal employees have to be mighty careful what they do and when they do it.

On the first of the year the employee of the La Crosse postoffice postoffice starts in with 1,000 marks to his credit, and every time he violates a rule he gets something whittled off his total—if he may be 500 points, or it may be only one-fourth of a point—but if he loses more than 400 points during the year he doesn't get his promotion with the annual increase in salary which may be coming to him. If he loses 1,000 points he gets laid off with a chance to explain to the department at Washington why he should not be fired for good.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is the best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. O. T. Erhart.

RYAN GANG HURRIES TO GET UNDER COVER

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Metropolitan Securities company today has in its treasury $962,292 of the $965,607.19 which it turned over to Anthony N. Brady for his rights and franchises for the Wall and Cortlandt street ferries railway company, a paper concern which the gas magnate had planned to construct to give the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company a foothold in Manhattan. This company never owned a car or bought a rail and its tangible assets
